

INSEE cooperation in social statistics

INSEE cooperation: 2 main features

- Part of French cooperation policy
- Contribution to multilateral programmes

INSEE cooperation: three main principles

- To favour regional approaches
- To link bilateral and multilateral programmes
- To concentrate bilateral cooperation on selected « programme countries »

INSEE cooperation: general goals

- New EU Member States and candidate countries:

Compliance with acquis communautaire

- Other countries:

Support to building of statistical systems able to provide reliable & comparable statistics and to monitor development policies

INSEE cooperation: geographic priorities

- Central European countries
- Mediterranean countries
- African countries

Forms of INSEE cooperation

- Bilateral cooperation projects
- International seminars
- Training sessions

INSEE cooperation in social statistics: main themes

- Population censuses
- Employment and labour market statistics
- Living conditions and poverty measurement
- Use of administrative sources

Bilateral cooperation projects

- Slovakia: poverty, demography
- Poland: poverty, population census
- Hungary: population and employment statistics, living conditions - poverty
- Czech Republic: living conditions - poverty
- Ukraine: labour market statistics
- Moldova: employment & informal sector
- Lebanon: household budget survey
- Tunisia: employment statistics, population census

International seminars

- 2000 International comparisons of poverty
- 2004 SILC seminar

Employment and labour market statistics

Participation in a seminar on censuses

Training sessions

- 2000 Population censuses – CECs
Employment and informal sector –
African countries
- 2002 Household surveys – African countries
- 2003 Use of administrative sources in social statistics – CECs
- 2004 Concepts and measurement of inequality and poverty – CECs and Balkans

Projects for 2005

- Training session on poverty measurement and monitoring – African countries
- Seminar on statistics of living conditions and measurement of poverty – TACIS countries